

ADRA School Ambassador

OUR PURPOSE AND VALUES

ADRA's Purpose: To serve humanity so all may live as God intended – free from poverty and injustice!

ADRA's Values: Being compassionate, courageous, and connected.

POSITION PURPOSE

The ADRA Ambassador programme provides students with valuable experience in serving others, and making a difference in their local community. The ADRA Ambassador plays an important role in positively raising the profile of ADRA in the local community and encouraging other young people to be involved.

KEY RESPONSIBILITIES

Compassionate

1. Conduct a needs assessment of students in one class and design and learn about an initiative to respond in service.
2. Nominate a teacher as the ADRA liaison for your school.

Connected

3. Support the school to grow connection with ADRA's purpose.
4. Lead and organize an ADRA fundraiser at your school to raise money for a chosen project.
5. Engage in regular communication between ADRA and other Ambassadors via occasional zoom meetings, phone calls and social media.

Courageous

6. Proactively share about ADRA among peers, family & peers, e.g. Termly presentations @ school chapel, ADRA notice in School Newsletter, ADRA notice board at school, etc.
7. Engage in networking and review of Ambassador Initiative.
8. Represent School in discussions with ADRA leaders.
9. Develop and share new ideas for raising awareness and donor support for ADRA.

PERSONAL COMMITMENT

Being part of the wider ADRA family requires personal commitment to its mission and lifestyle.

ADRA'S COMMITMENT

We believe in the value of the ADRA Ambassador network and are committed to making this a positive experience for all involved. We will provide ADRA Ambassadors the tools and support necessary to succeed:

- Regular ADRA NZ eNews
- Early email notification of upcoming events and/or mailings
- Open communication and feedback
- ADRA resources suited for the needs of your school/event
